Have You Heard?

by Dorothy McCain Elsenius

David A. Leary, Albany resident for eight years, has been elected to serve as a State Director for the California Real Estate Association. The new State Director is also a Director-Elect of the West Contra Costa Board of Realtors.

Leo K. C. Linn of Bissell & Karnx, Inc., engineers for the Solano Avenue Beautification project, wishes to call to the attention of Albany residents that new signals have been installed at Santa Fe and Solano, and pedestrians wishing to cross Solano must push the pedestrian button and wait for the "walk" sign. Unless the button is pushed the light will be green, but the "don't walk" sign will be lighted.

Albany Lions Club members are in the final plans for their 55th annual Football Banquet, to be held Wednesday, Dec. 8, at Eagles Hall in El Cerrito, to honor members of the Albany High School Varsity team.

Lion Pat Neylon is in charge of securing prizes for the event, and the pom pon girls and cheerleaders will be in charge of the decorating—under the watchful eye of "lucky" Bill Potts.

Fern Luoma will be present to take pictures of the event.

Now is a good opportunity to get rid of those articles that have been taking up needed space in your closet, basement, garage, etc. The Albany High Senior Par-

Students To Get Research Grants

Science research projects, designed by 7th to 12th grade students in the county's public and private schools, will be financed under a "science on a shoestring" program as announced last week by the Alameda County Heart Association. Grants for purchasing supplies and equipment to carry out their projects will be awarded to students whose proposals are approved by their science teachers and the Heart Association's project review committee.

The committee, a group of volunteer physicians, is headed by Dr. Helen Christensen of Berkeley. Application forms for the grant program have already been sent to science teachers throughout the county, Dr. Christensen said.

"The intent of the program," she explained, "is to provide a research experience for students and encourage them to pursue careers in scientific research."

Individual awards of up to $75 will be based on originality, good teacher or sponsor recommendation, practicability and "a clearly stated and thought out" problem to be studied. Interested students should obtain forms from their science teacher or counselor as soon as possible since the application deadline is December 17, Dr. Christensen noted. Awards will be announced early in January.

The "Science on a Shoestring" program was originated as a memorial to the late Dr. Kenelm M. Benson, a past president of the Heart Association.

Sheriff Heads MOD Campaign

Starting his second decade as Alameda County Campaign Chairman for the National Foundation-March of Dimes is Frank L. Madigan, Sheriff of Alameda County, whose appointment was announced by Dr. Marvin C. Hockabou, chairman of the board of directors, Alameda County March of Dimes.

Sheriff Madigan in accepting the appointment stated, "The National Foundation-March of Dimes has conferred upon me the great honor of serving as Alameda County Campaign Chairman of the past 10 years. I have taken great pride in the successful campaigns conducted, and urge all the citizens of Alameda County to wholeheartedly continue their support of this humanitarian cause."

Serving with Sheriff Madigan will be 16 community leaders; one representative from each of the Alameda County cities participating in the annual campaign.

Agenda Items Up For Action

A report of Monday night's City Council meeting cannot be printed this week because of early publication of the Times due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

However, a report can be made of the agenda items which were to be acted upon Monday night.

Correspondence from Administrative Officer, James Turner included: a request for the approval of payment in the amount of $15 to Vincent Development Corp., for unnecessary variance; and submission for approval of the development agreement for the Albany waterfront and a report of the League of California Cities' stand on legislative bills.

Correspondence from the Planning and Zoning Commission recommending approval of Variance No. 101, from Robert Luoma, for permission to deviate from Article 3, Section 6 of Ordinance No. 61-011, at 634 Cornell and from Grober C. Rosentreter, concerning removal of a willow tree at 996 Kains Ave. were also listed as agenda items.

A letter from Frank V. Cortese notified the Council of his approval of the Council's action in dedicating the holiday season to American Servicemen and POW's; while Herbert Rubin, vice-chairman of the Albany Civil Service Board, wrote to the Council regarding Charter Amendments to be placed on the ballot for the April election.

Routine approval of reports was also listed on the agenda. These reports included: building activities for October, Civil Service Board meeting of Nov. 10, Association of Bay Area Government's Executive Committee meetings of Oct. 14 and Nov. 4 and the Planning and Zoning Commission meeting held Nov. 9.

Also up for Council approval was the payment of the city payroll for the period Nov. 1-15, 1971, inclusive, in the amount of $41,048.32.

Held over from Nov. 8, under unfinished business, was the Administrative Officer's report concerning the agreement for joint refuse rate study.

Post Office Exam

The United States Postal Service announces an examination for custodian in the Berkeley Post Office.

Applications for Employment and Supplemental Experience Statement forms are available at Rm. 224, Main Berkeley Post Office, Allston Way and Milvia, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

These positions are restricted by law to persons who are entitled to veteran's preference. However, applications for the examination will be accepted from persons who are not entitled to veteran's preference, but such persons will be considered for positions only when persons entitled to veteran's preference are not available.

Closing date for filing application is Dec. 20, 1971.

Albany Pool Closed

The Albany Pool will be closed for annual repairs and general cleanup, between Nov. 24 and Jan. 3.

Swimming classes for children will begin again on Jan. 3 and the schedules for these classes will be Mon, Tues. and Thurs., from 5 to 6:30 p.m. (one half hour classes, with one half hour free time).

Adult swimming classes will also begin on Jan. 3 and will be held on Monday and Wednesday, at 6:30, 7:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Booster Club Award Dinner

The Albany Athletic Booster Club will honor Albany High School athletes, at a banquet to be held Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the Veterans' Memorial Building, Portland and Ramona, beginning at 6:15 p.m.

The banquet, one of the largest to date, will honor participants in the following sports: cross-country track, tennis, freshman football, JV football, as well as the cheerleaders, pom-pom girls and letter girls.

General chairman for the event is Mrs. Pat Rounds. She will be assisted by Ruth Gillette, Aldene Nichols, Barbara Jaramillo, Jewel Okawachi, Joy Allen, Judy Cabral, Dorothy Pelosi, Elva Kentfield, Jean DeJong, Jean Patterson and Maxine Fletcher.

Good food and many door prizes, together with the presentation of awards, promises to make this another one of Albany's special events.

For further information on the banquet call Booster president, Ray DeJong, 526-6802.

Athlete of the Week

Bobby Jacobson

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The Albany Chamber of Commerce will be spending the week of November 22 wrapping and mailing a Christmas gift to every Albany serviceman and members of the Peace Corps who will be unable to come home for Christmas,

WHEREAS: Albany service organizations, clubs, merchants and Albany citizens have contributed to this project called "YULE POOL," and

WHEREAS: The Albany City Council joins with the Albany Chamber of Commerce in the wish to send Albany servicemen and members of the Peace Corps a holiday greeting and assurance that each and every one is held in the highest esteem.

THEREFORE: This Holiday Season is dedicated to Albany Servicemen and members of the Peace Corps.

H. F. CALL
Mayor of the City of Albany

Bobby Jacobson is Athlete of the Week. For two years now, Bobby, presently a junior has represented Albany High School as top player. This meant that he faced the best men from each school in the league, twice a week. There was tremendous pressure on young Jake, but he proved himself equal to the challenge by finishing with a 5-win, 5-loss record this year. Some matches lost were closely fought and lengthy and could have gone either way. On one match, Bobby beat Livermore's number one player, something Albany has not been able to do for a number of years. Coach Choy comments, "Bobby has excellent skills and a strong desire to improve. Because of the constant pressure placed on him, I'm sure his 'maturity quotient' has jumped a few extra notches. He is a fine sportsman and always a gentleman on the courts. We hope to see him again next year, because we definitely will need him." Albany High's tennis team and coach are proud of Bobby's play and appreciate his contribution.

The Berkeley Postmaster reminds local residents that Christmas mailing deadlines are fast approaching.

A record 10 billion pieces of mail will swamp the Postal Service this Christmas, and the people who handle this mail need your help.

Residents are asked to tie Christmas cards into "Local" and "Out of Town" bundles, to use Zip codes, and to mail before the recommended dates: December 1 for distant packages; December 10 for distant cards; and December 15 for local cards. When wrapping packages for mailing, be sure to use sturdy materials. A little extra care will prevent damages and delays caused by poor packaging. Keep in mind also, that during the busy Christmas season parcels take three or more weeks to reach distant destinations.

Remember—from all the people who help bring you Christmas—please mail early!

Health Dept. Shot Clinic

The Albany Health Dept. will hold an immunization clinic from noon to 4 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 1, in the Health Dept. office, Albany City Hall, 1000 San Pablo Ave.

The following immunizations will be offered to Albany residents: diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), tetanus, oral polio, measles, rubella (German measles), and smallpox.

Rubella immunization is not offered to anyone over 12 years of age, and smallpox vaccination is only recommended for those who plan to travel to foreign countries where smallpox is still a threat. Diphtheria and tetanus immunizations should be renewed every 10 years.

To be sure everyone attending the clinic is in need of immunizations, it is recommended that those planning on getting shots bring their immunization records.

There will be a charge of $1.50 per person per clinic visit, and immunization will not be given to anyone with a cold or fever.

Poll Tabulation

The Albany Board of Education has released a tabulation of the Preference Poll, for relocation of Albany school children, based on returns as of Nov. 16.

The basic question: Do you favor keeping children at Marin and Cornell schools until after a bond election? Earliest election date would be April, 1972. Albany residents: yes, 376; no, 108. Non-residents: yes, 22; no, 4. Relocation of children—Plan I: Double sessions—yes, 120; no, 20. Plan II: Use of Albany High School—yes, 130; no, 73.

Plan III: Use of portables on "space available" sites—yes, 89; no, 14. Plan IV: Combination of double sessions and portables—yes, 9; no, 1.

A total of 1,494 preference sheets were mailed, and a total of 533 responses were received by Nov. 16. Many who responded did not answer the basic question, while others selected no plan at all.

Retiring Albany Worker Honored

A large gathering of friends, relatives and fellow workers (including four recent Albany city retirees) gathered at Serb's recently to honor Ted Hutt, on his retirement from the Albany Public Works Department.

Numerous anecdotes, as well as more serious stories of Hutt's experiences during his 18 years with the Department were the main topics of discussion. A poem, by City Hall's poet laureate Elda Foott, extolled his accomplishments as a city employee and told how he would be missed. The poem was accompanied by a package of chalk—so Hutt could continue marking parking places on Albany streets as he takes his daily walk.

He was also presented with a monetary gift from the Albany Municipal Employees Association, as well as one from other friends.

Hutt's wife, Betty, and daughter, Mrs. Raymond Duarte, were among those attending the party. His son, Dick, who now resides in Toronto, Canada, was unable to attend.

GI Pay Raise

The new military pay raise is predicted to cause sweeping changes in the Army, according to recruiting officials.

Staff Sergeant B. McCotrell, local Army Recruiter, says the new raise, which went into effect on November 14, will increase the monthly starting pay of a new private from $134.40 to $268.50. In addition, the soldier can be earning $311.10 as early as 12 months after he enters the Army, due to the Army's rapid promotion system.

"This is exactly twice what the new soldier was earning before," said the Sergeant. He also pointed out that the new raise will not affect the Army's policy of furnishing free room, board and medical services to enlisted men.

The recruiter anticipates that the increase in pay will have an immediate effect on enlistments. The raise will provide a boost to the Army's VOLAR (Volunteer Army) program through which the Army hopes to lessen its dependence on the Draft.

VOLAR is an attempt to reduce restrictions that have been sore spots with soldiers for many years. Among new innovations are a strictly five-day work week, doing away with reveille and KP, and improving living conditions in the barracks.

For the enlistee, the raise will mean that with the fringe benefits of Army life, his salary now compares favorably with many civilian jobs open to high school graduates.

"The Army's come a long way since 1941, when a private made $21 a month," said Sergeant McCotrell.

For further information come in to see the U.S. Army Recruiter at 2040 Telegraph Ave., or call collect 451-9856/9857/9858/9859.

Alumni Game

Friday night, Dec. 3, is the date set for the second annual Albany High School Alumni Basketball Game.

The Alumni team will feature many former high school players, including: Curt Pihl, John Whitman, Bob Fisher, Tim Johnson, Dennis Black, Steve Layne, Steve Valenzuela, Ryn Stevens, Wyn Tamura, Russ Klobas and others.

The Alumni game will be preceded by a game, starting at 5:30 p.m., featuring Cornell vs. Marin school, and a second game, starting at 7 p.m., matching the Albany High faculty against the Junior Varsity basketball team.

The public is cordially invited to attend to see Albany High basketball stars of the future as well as those of the past. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

After School Fun

Art and craft activities vary each week, and the children who attend these Albany Parks and Recreation Dept. classes, 4th through 7th graders, are urged to participate in a variety of projects.

These classes are held each Monday at Memorial Park, Tuesday at Marin School Cafeteria, and Friday at Cornell School Cafeteria, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Projects to be worked on this month include: pyroclastic clay chains, pencil holders, coat hangers or flower pots, paper mache, puppets or animals, pine cone turkeys, making costumes for and painting puppets, and linoleum mosaics.

Those interested are urged to join these after-school programs at the designated school and park playgrounds.

Golden Wedding

The Belmont home of David Crommie, was the scene of a recent party, marking the golden wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crommie of Albany.

A native of Schenectady, N.Y., Mr. Crommie lived in Albany from 1907 to 1921, while working on many Bay Area building projects.

After meeting and marrying, Norman and his wife, Julia, spent their first 25 years of marriage in Pleasanton, returning to Albany with their four children in 1953.

Norman, who retired from the Naval Supply Depot in Oakland in 1954, is a past commander of American Legion Post 237 in Pleasanton and is currently a member of Albany Post 292.

Although they have often spoken of moving from their Kains Ave. home to a smaller house, now that their children are all grown, their immediate plans are to begin the next 50 years of married life at the same Kains Avenue address.

Members of the East Bay Area Club of the American Youth Hostels. Space is limited and those interested should call 527-4367 for information and early reservations.

The 31st annual Tiny Tim Luncheon and Christmas Bazaar, sponsored by the Easter Lily chapter of the Alameda County Easter Seal Society, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1, at Lake Merritt Hotel in Oakland.

Homemade pastries and hand-crafted items for Christmas giving will be on sale and the luncheon speaker will be Chief Physical Therapist, Mrs. Karen Breedlove. For further information call 835-2131.

Albany Soroptimist Club members will hold their Thanksgiving meeting Wednesday, Nov. 24, at Serb's, according to May Ellis Olson, chairman for the day.

Special guest speaker at the luncheon meeting will be Father John J. Manning, assistant pastor of St. Jerome's Church. Guests are invited to attend.

Members of the Albany Rotary Club will learn all about the ins and outs of McDonald's Hamburgers, when George McDonald, co-owner of the local San Pablo JULIA AND NORMAN CROMMIE offer a toast to themselves and their friends on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

Navy Announces Two New Programs

Individuals with the proper background are eligible for enlistment up to pay grade E-5 in the machinist's mate and shipfitter's career fields, the Commander, Navy Recruiting Command has announced.

Although all men joining the Navy under the provisions of these programs will be enlisted at pay grade E-3, those interested in joining as a machinist's mate third class (E-4) must have a minimum of 24 months experience and for E-5, must have a minimum of 48 months experience. Formal training, on-the-job training and apprenticeship time does not count for this time requirement. Additionally, applicants must have, within the past three years, earned their livelihood in the trades or professions that are convertible to machinist's mate. These are refrigeration mechanic, engine repair, marine engineer and oxygen plant operator.

Those interested in joining as shipfitter third class or second class must meet the same requirements as those for machinist's mate. The trades or professions convertible to shipfitter are sheet metal worker, cooper, blacksmith, pipefitter, welder, steamfitter, tool dresser and plumber.

No specific educational requirements exist. But since the Navy has been unable to fulfill its quota and a great need exists in these fields, waivers are authorized for individuals with equivalent schooling.

Men with no prior service must enlist for six years and men with prior service may enlist for four years. Applicants must not have reached a computed age of 35. However, a waiver on a one-year basis may be offered for each year of prior federal military service (active or inactive) or each year employed in the Merchant Marine Service up to a maximum of six years.

Recruit training for successful applicants will be at the Navy Training Center, Orlando, Fla. Those men accepted for the program at either pay grade E-3 or E-5 will be promoted to the grade immediately upon completion of recruit training.

Further information may be obtained from the nearest Navy recruiter.

Thanks For Volunteers

Volunteers from Kensington and Albany featured prominently among those receiving Red Cross service awards at the Berkeley-Albany Chapter's annual Recognition Tea last Wednesday.

Mrs. Lee S. Howard of Kensington was the sole recipient of the rarest 35-year pin, and Mrs. Stanley (Violet Richardson) Ward, also a Kensington resident, was one of three volunteers honored for three decades of Red Cross service. Mrs. Glen H. Armstrong and Mrs. Roy McDonald of Berkeley also received 30-year pins.

Mrs. Marion Branton of Albany, whose activities have included canteen and dockside work as well as her present staff duties at the Red Cross, was awarded a 15-year pin.

Mrs. Howard, the 35-year-old winner, did special work during World War II, was staff aide for many years and recently has been a regular donor of flowers from her Sunset Road garden. The flowers, all contributed, are made into bouquets by Red Cross volunteers and sent each Tuesday to the Naval Hospital and local convalescent hospitals.

Violet Richardson Ward, for 41 years Superintendent of Health and Physical Education for the Berkeley schools, found time during her busy career to contribute her skills to Red Cross safety programs and serve on the board of directors. She was a first aid and water safety instructor and chairman of the latter program. For the past six years she has been contributing flowers for the hospitals.

Accepting her award at the tea, Mrs. Ward introduced her husband as important part of "the team." "I couldn't have done it without him," she said.

Several Albany and Kensington volunteers were awarded five-year pins. These included John A. Barchfield, Police Chief Ralph Jensen, James Owenhouse and Mrs. Roy Williamson.

A total of 61 volunteers received awards for Red Cross service records ranging from five to 35 years.

(l to r, standing) Mrs. Stanley (Violet Richardson) Ward, Mrs. Douglas McConnell and Mrs. Marion Branton admire the 35-year service pin awarded to Mrs. Lee S. Howard. Mrs. Ward received a 30-year pin and Mrs. Branton, an Albany resident, was awarded a 15-year pin. Mrs. McConnell is chairman of volunteers for the Red Cross.

Anyone wishing to donate to the Flea Market booth should call Herman Wallace, 524-0312 and arrange for pickup or delivery of items—large or small.

Members of the Albany Senior Parents Club are also busy working on their first big money-making project—selling tickets for the five holiday food baskets drawing.

Anyone who has not been contacted to purchase tickets for the baskets, which contain a turkey, a ham, wine and other holiday items, should call 524-4716 for information as to where tickets are available.

Brass Tacks, a volunteer organization in Berkeley, dedicated to helping people (especially parents) to understand drug use, is in need of volunteers to answer phones, make posters and do other odd jobs.

The group is located at the Berkeley Community YWCA, 2134 Allston Way. Call 848-1884 for further information.

The March of Dimes Poster Boy young Marty Mim Mack, will light the East Bay's tallest Christmas tree, a 50 ft. fir illuminated by more than 2,500 glowing bulbs, Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 5 p.m., in Oakland's Jack London Square.

The program will also include music by a teenage steel band, carols sung by the Oakland Parks and Recreation Dept. children's chorus, and Santa Claus, who will give free toys to all youngsters in attendance.

Christine Correia, membership chairman for American Legion Auxiliary Unit 292, reports 136 paid members as of Nov. 1. Those who haven't paid their 1972 dues are urged to do so as soon as possible. Dues may be sent to her at 6516 Potrero Ave., El Cerrito 94530.

And, speaking of the Auxiliary... they will be holding a rummage sale on January 28. Anyone wishing to donate items to sell is asked to contact Marcella Ellis, rummage sale chairman, at 525-3277.

The Albany Lions' Board of Directors meeting will be held at

Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1971 The ALBANY TIMES . . . 3

Shakey's, Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 7:30 p.m. The group is so anxious to meet there they have moved their meeting ahead a week. Must be some pizza lovers in the group.

Navy Fireman David H. Harold, son of Mrs. Robert F. Harold, Jr., of Berkeley, has graduated from recruit training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego, according to a report received from the Fleet Home Town News Center.

An open rap session for interested persons of all ages will be held Monday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m., at the Berkeley Community YWCA, 2134 Allston Way.

This is the 9th monthly evening session, sponsored by Brass

Tacks, a parent-centered program which provides counsel and information to parents concerned about drug abuses. For further information call 848-1884.

Mae Ellis Olson is again offering free iris tubers to anyone who will call at the Mortuary for them. Local green thumbs have received some choice bulbs from this annual offering.

TEENAGE DRIVERS

Are teenagers more safety conscious than their parents? A survey conducted by Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies shows that in at least one aspect of safety they are. The survey showed that twice as many teenagers as adults use seat belts.

Ours
is an old, established
firm.
(Who cares?)

Frankly, no one cares.

The mere fact that we've been around for many years doesn't impress anyone, nor should it.

What's impressive is what we've done during those years — always keeping up with (or maybe even a little ahead of!) the needs of saddened families, always serving with the skill of professionals and the sincere concern of friends.

CITIZENSHIP FOR LEE?

More than 100 years after his death, the famed Confederate General, Robert E. Lee, is being considered for full U.S. citizenship.

Congress has been asked to restore citizenship rights of the General, who led the South through most of the war against the Union.

He had asked return of his citizenship a few months after surrendering to General Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House, Va., on April 9, 1865, but was refused.

Allen-Forrest Vows

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forrest.

Six o'clock candlelight rites solemnized by Rev. Carl Thomas of the Epworth Methodist Church of Berkeley, united in marriage Cynthia Iona Allen and Mark Morgan Forrest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Norman Allen of Albany, are parents of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forrest, also of Albany, are parents of the bridegroom.

Cynthia wore a Maurer gown of peau de soie with an overlay of silk organza. Alencon lace enhanced the gown at the neckline, sleeves and scalloped hemline. Her detachable train, with scalloped motifs, was also edged in lace. Her three tiered veil of bridal illusion was secured to a crown of alencon lace and seed pearls. White baby roses combined with ivy, held on an heirloom lace piece, formed her bouquet.

Mrs. David Gerfen was matron of honor for her sister. She was attired in a floor length ruby, velvet gown, empire styled with white lace trimming the scoop neckline and ruffled cuffs. She carried a bouquet of red, pink and white carnations.

Christine Zaffiro, the bridegroom's niece, wearing a red and white wool knit frock and carrying a nosegay of red, pink and white carnations, acted as flower girl.

The bridegroom's brother, Jack Gary Forrest, was his best man while David Gerfen performed usher duties.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Both are graduates of Albany High School and Cynthia is also a graduate of Paris Beauty College, while Mark is employed by Hink's of Lafayette, as a major appliance salesman.

After a wedding trip to Carmel and Monterey, the newlyweds are making their home in El Cerrito.

Boat Registration

California's half million boat owners will receive their 1972 boat registration fee billings in early December, at the same time and on the same type of punched card as their vehicle and trailer registration renewal notices.

"Boat and vehicle records are all under one roof now," says Dept. of Motor Vehicles Director Robert Cozens. "Boat records went on the DMV computer a few weeks ago, and owners will have to look twice to distinguish between their auto, trailer or boat registration renewal forms."

Cozens further noted: "A boater will find it convenient to renew his boat registration at any DMV office, at the same time he renews registration on the trailer it rests on and the vehicle that pulls it."

Another significant change — vessels, like vehicles, are now subject to annual renewal, with fees falling due at the same time as for vehicles. The boat renewal fee is a flat $2.

However, while DMV collects an in-lieu property tax on vehicles—the so-called license fee—which is forwarded to cities and counties, boat property taxes are still assessed directly by local government.

Fire
Plug

The problem of man and his environment is very much in the forefront these days. There is concern, and rightly so, with the air we breathe, the purity of the water in our rivers and lakes, the ugly blot of pollution on so many of our resources.

What tends to be overlooked, the National Fire Protection Association reminds us, is the effect of destructive fire on our environment.

Anyone who has seen the aftermath of a fire, which has wiped out a block of homes housing a score of families, or gutted a plant employing hundreds of persons, can testify that fire is an important environmental factor. Pollutants destroy, and fire destroys—thousands of lives each year, and billions of dollars' worth of our natural and man-made resources.

As with other kinds of pollution, the answer to the fire problem begins with individual actions and reactions. We must change the habits that so commonly cause fires — careless smoking, negligent handling of gasoline, for example. We must become intolerant of conditions that lead to fire—like defective heating equipment, frayed electric cords. We must take protective action—like pre-planning escape measures, never leaving children unattended.

Now is the time to remind ourselves that FIRE HURTS—both physically and financially. Above all, this is the time to realize that whether we have an environment free of destructive fire is largely up to us.

The Times prints more news about Albany people than any other newspaper.

Red Cross Offers Aid To Vets

"The American Red Cross welcomes the opportunity to serve all veterans, including the many young men now returning from overseas who face a difficult period of readjustment to civilian life," said George Stockberger, chairman of the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross chapter.

This year 579 veterans and their families received help from the local Red Cross in solving problems related to their military service. An increasingly large number of those served are Vietnam veterans, according to Mrs. Evelyn Roell, Red Cross director of Service to Military Families.

Finding answers to veterans' questions about Government benefits available and unraveling the often complicated procedures involved in processing claims is a major area in which Red Cross can assist, Mrs. Roell noted.

"The Red Cross has been helping veterans and their families since World War I; we have workers who are trained and experienced in this field," she said.

"We can help veterans file their applications for Veterans Administration benefits or the correction of military records and gather the evidence needed to support these applications. "A special Red Cross field director in the VA office will give technical advice on the most favorable way to present the 'vets' claim and, at his request, will represent him before the rating and appeal boards," Mrs. Roell explained.

The Red Cross can also assist veterans and their families in filing claims for compensation for war related injury or illness, burial allowances, non-service pensions for older veterans, out patient care, and dental check-ups, and GI schooling for returning Vietnam veterans.

Help is also offered in solving personal and family problems, or in finding the right agency to handle the difficulty if the Red Cross cannot give the needed assistance.

Veterans are invited to come into the Berkeley Chapter of the American Red Cross, 2116 Allison Way, to discuss their problems, or to call 845-1430 for assistance at any time.

Winter Driving

The Thanksgiving Day weekend begins the winter holiday season each year and it is the time when weather conditions begin to change from good to bad.

"Each year it takes a while for drivers to get used to driving on wet and slippery streets, and this often is a big factor in the large number of traffic accidents we have during the Thanksgiving Day holiday," Captain W. J. Bradshaw, California Highway Patrol commander in the Hayward area, commented today.

"The essential things for drivers to remember as the Thanksgiving Day holiday begins are that there are more drivers on the roads and driving conditions may become more hazardous if the weather is bad.

"Make your holiday weekend a pleasant and joyful one by insuring that a traffic accident does not cut it short. You should always be alert and obey all traffic laws, but perhaps the start of the winter holiday season requires just a little more attention to the job of driving."

Traffic & Safety

The Albany Traffic and Safety Commission is not only interested in traffic safety for Albany citizens, but for all types of safety.

In this vein, from time to time the Commission will be offering sound and up-to-date advice to Albany residents on a variety of safety precautions.

Other security measures:

1. Lighting is one of your best protections. When you are out for the evening don't just leave an outside light on, leave one on inside too, and pull the blinds so no one can look inside and see that no one is home.

2. What about those evenings when you don't get home until after dark? Install an automatic switch to turn on your lights at a set time. A clock radio can also be set for this purpose, but be sure the volume is set fairly low and on a talk station.

3. Keep a flashlight easily available. Light is frequently enough to scare off a potential burglar or attacker.

(Women living alone should take special note of the following:)

4. Keep your blinds closed when you are home at night. A peeping tom may be a potential killer.

5. Don't inform persons that you are a woman living alone by putting Miss or Mrs. Jane Doe on your mailbox. Use first initial and last name only. The same goes for your listing in the telephone book. A listing such as Helen Smith is an open invitation to crank callers and potential burglars or attackers by letting them know you live alone.

Pumpkin -- A Holiday Tradition

One of the American Indians' earliest diet ingredients was the pumpkin—a close kin to the squash. Mentioning the word pumpkin usually conjures up visions of round orange balls of various shapes and sizes, usually carved with grotesque faces on Halloween. . . . Or if one is older he probably thinks in terms of pumpkin as a delicious filling for a pie that is particularly popular during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday seasons.

Actually, the pumpkin is one of the major canned products of our nation's diversified agriculture with nearly three million cases of canned pumpkin marketed each year.

California ranks as the number two pumpkin producing state behind the State of Illinois. The growers of pumpkins in California annually produce approximately 40 thousand tons, which is largely canned by a farmer-owned cooperative, Tri-Valley Growers.

The period of September through November is pumpkin harvesting time in the Golden State, when pumpkins destined for processing are stripped of their seeds and skinned mechanically. The meat is then washed, homogenized, canned and cooked, ready for the grocery shelf. What the housewife then does with it at home is limited only by her culinary skill.

In addition to the pumpkin which is canned, more than 27 million pounds of pumpkin meat comes to the housewife in a frozen form. The fresh market consumes an estimated 46 million pounds, but nationwide the largest use is still for the familiar Halloween jack-o-lantern. The U.S. Dept. of Agriculture estimates that nearly 80 percent of the year's supply of pumpkins is sold in October for Halloween decorations.

The pumpkin, as we know it today, is a close kin to many varieties of squash and its uses are as varied as the uses of squash.

People use it in soups, as fried cakes, in boiled dishes and in a variety of baked forms. The masses of seeds, which fill the inner cavern of the pumpkin, are used commercially after they have been cleaned and dried. In some parts of the world the seed is salted and has become as popular as peanuts are to Americans.

The pumpkin pie is as much a part of our Thanksgiving feast as is the turkey, cranberry and other menu items. Truly an autumn fruit, the pumpkin is an American tradition. In this era of nostalgia for the good old days, increasing numbers of California families are bundling off to rural areas, where pumpkin growers open their fields, allowing the public to tramp the rows in search of their own pumpkins—fresh from the vine.

If you don't want it, sell it with a Times classified ad.

New Personalized Plate Bill Signed

A bill, enabling California motorists to display personalized license plates on any truck, pickup, trailer or motorcycle, was recently signed into law by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Previously personalized plates were only available for passenger automobiles, and owners of pickup trucks requiring commercial plates had expressed frustration at being excluded.

"Many commercial fleet owners, who have wanted to name a product or slogan on their truck license plates can now do so," said Director of Motor Vehicles, Robert Cozens.

A $25 fee, with proceeds going to ecology-oriented projects, now entitles any motorist to license plates displaying two to six letters and/or numbers of his choice—if available and suitable. However, he may not duplicate an already existing personalized plate or other plate series in use.

The plates will stay with the owner as long as he pays a special $10 annual renewal fee in addition to other regular fees. For $12 the plates may be transferred from one vehicle to another.

On plates ordered now, to be picked up after January 1, a $10 renewal fee will not fall until 1973.

Applications are now available at any Department of Motor Vehicles or automobile club office.
